

Families And Children Together
Maine
Kids  Kin

Maine Kids-Kin is pleased to present...

Maine Grandfamilies

A Documentary Film

Don't miss the first documentary film about Maine's Grandfamilies. This 25 minute film highlights the challenges Maine Grandfamilies face as well as their strength and dedication to the children they are raising. This film received enthusiastic acclaim following it's premiere...now you can experience this heart-warming film for yourself!

"A lot of people talk about what a blessing we are to the kids, but these kids are a blessing to us."

-Quote from Maine Grandfamilies

Maine Kids-Kin, a program of Families And Children Together, assists extended family members who are stepping in to care for relatives' children.

Currently, there are over 11,000 Maine children who live with their relatives.

We offer legal, educational and financial information to assist grandfamilies.

For more information about Maine Kids-Kin and its programs, visit www.mainekids-kin.org.

Maine Kids-Kin has just reduced the price of the film, you can now own it for $75.00! (62% OFF the original price!)

To purchase the film, or for more information, please contact Janelle Wuoristo at Families and Children Together at jwuoristo@mainekids-kin.org or 941-2347 or 1-866-298-0896.

This film was created by Catama Film and Video of South Portland.